Bridge #1040 Project

Director Kuhl said she has several deeds that go with the Bridge #1040 project. The property is being sold under contract, requiring a Warranty Deed from Louis P. Vaughn in the amount of $6,324 and a Quit Claim Deed from James R. and Lisa D. Lahrman in the same amount of $6,324. Also, for the Temporary Highway Easement, parcel 1A in the amount of $1,000 to Louis P. Vaughn and $1,000 to James R. and Lisa D. Lahrman.

- Commissioner Knochel moved to approve the Warranty Deed, the Quit Claim Deed, and the Temporary Highway Easement for the Bridge #1040 project as presented, second by Commissioner Byers; motion carried.

CARY HOME FOR CHILDREN* – Rebecca Humphrey

Continuation of Multi Systemic Therapy (MST) Contract for Certification and Supervision as an approved MST Site

Cary Home Executive Director Humphrey presented three contracts for approval. All three have been reviewed by Attorney Luman's office and the Mitchell Agency for those involving insurance. The first is for the continuation of Multi Systemic Therapy (MST) which is the home-based treatment provided for youth and families. The funding has been appropriated from Council for 2013; however, an ongoing annual contract is required.

- Commissioner Knochel moved to approve the MST contract as presented, second by Commissioner Byers; motion carried.

Contract from Department of Child Services to provide Residential Services for 2013

Director Humphrey said the second contract is for the Department of Child Services to provide residential services for 2013. It is standard contract with some new requirements for Cary Home as the provider. In response to President Murtaugh's question regarding changes in per diem, Director Humphrey said one of the programs per diem increased by $20; the rates have not been received for the other two programs.

- Commissioner Knochel moved to approve the contract with the Department of Child Services as presented, second by Commissioner Byers; motion carried.

Community Engagement Coordinator Contract

Director Humphrey stated the third contract is due to a position that was eliminated for 2013; the contract is replacing the position. The contract will save money as no employee benefits will be paid. In addition, the contract for a Community Engagement Coordinator will provide tutors, mentors, licensed teachers, and donations to serve the youth.

- Commissioner Knochel moved to approve the Community Engagement Coordinator contract, second by Commissioner Byers; motion carried.

SHERIFF – Tracy Brown
Contract for 911 Services

Sheriff Brown requested authorization to renew the contract with Motorola Solutions. The contract covers maintenance services for all the Motorola products involved in 911 services; the base stations and the operator dispatch positions at the various police departments. It's a four year renewal in the amount of $125,800 per year. Attorney Luhman reviewed the contract and Motorola has submitted all required documents. President Murtaugh asked if there is any change in the amount to which Sheriff Brown responded no. Sheriff Brown added that the contract is paid from 911 User Fees and is part of the Sheriff budget for 2013.

- Commissioner Knochel moved to approve the contract for 911 Services as presented, second by Commissioner Byers; motion carried.

EXTENSION EDUCATORS CONTRACT

Roberta Crabtree from the County Extension Office presented Amendment #5 to the Extension Contractual Services Agreement between Purdue University and Tippecanoe County. It amends the agreement expiration date to December 31, 2013 and amends the amount to $190,820.00. It covers the full cost of salary for five educators and partial cost for four educators. It is an annual contract and is part of the 2013 budget.

- Commissioner Knochel moved to approve the Educators Contract as presented, second by Commissioner Byers; motion carried.

APPLICATION TO TIPPECANOE VILLA

- Commissioner Knochel moved to approve the application to Tippecanoe Villa for Fred Rice, second by Commissioner Byers; motion carried.
