PUBLIC COMMENTS

Paul Wright; West Point, IN

Mr. Wright voiced his concern about the juvenile center funds being low. Mr. Wright voiced concern about leasing more space when many of the county's obsolete items have been sold. Commissioner Byers stated the items that have been sold were impounded vehicles and highway equipment. Commissioner Byers stated that TEMA's equipment is stored in five different locations; he added this location would have closer access to Interstate 65, State Road 43, and Highway 52. Commissioner Byers noted that TEMA also serves surrounding counties.

Commissioner Byers moved to adjourn.
