Judge Loretta Rush spoke regarding additional Juvenile Intake Probation Officers. She reported $137,000 remains in the budget from DOC funds not expended for the last quarter of 2008 in addition to the operating budget set aside for the Juvenile Center. Judge Rush is proposing four additional Intake/Assessment Officers be added to the Juvenile Probation staff to allow for immediate assessments of youth. Scott Angstadt, Deputy Chief Probation Officer, reported the starting salary for a Probation Officer is $29,268. The total cost for the county per officer will be $46,078.08 with benefits. He is recommending the positions be added to assist the current staff with implementing appropriate services at the time of arrest. Immediate assessments will ensure proper placement or services based on the offense. Currently, youth are unaware of the immediate consequences of their actions without these assessments. Mr. Angstadt suggested with additional officers Probation will have the opportunity to schedule assessments around a parent's or child's schedule to promote a family involvement in the assessment.
