IMPORTANT INFORMATION CONCERNING THIS PROCEEDING SUPPLEMENTAL

(1) Previously in this cause, a money judgment was entered in favor of the Judgment Creditor and against you, the Judgment Debtor.

(2) Anytime a Judgment is not paid in full within thirty (30) days of the date the Judgment was entered and the parties have not come to an agreement regarding a schedule for payments or if the Judgment Debtor has quit making agreed payments, the Judgment Creditor may ask the Court to order you to appear in court and be questioned under oath about your income, assets and other resources that could be used to pay this Judgment. This procedure is called a Proceeding Supplemental.

(3) If it is possible for you and the Judgment Creditor to calmly discuss these Proceedings, you are encouraged to contact the Judgment Creditor and negotiate in good faith to reach an agreement to make regular payments. If the parties do reach an agreement, the parties should put this Payment Agreement in writing and all parties should sign the agreement. This form for a Payment Agreement is available online or at the Court's office.

The Judgment Creditor is responsible for filing the Payment Agreement with the Court. If the Payment Agreement is filed before the court date listed on the front of this Order, the parties will not need to appear in court.

If it is not possible for you and the Judgment Creditor to discuss these Proceedings, the Court can assist the parties in discussing a payment agreement when you appear in Court on the date and at the time listed on the front of this Order.

(4) Until this Judgment is paid in full, the Judgment Creditor may regularly file Proceedings Supplemental to have you appear in court and to be questioned about your income, assets and other resources that could be used to pay this Judgment. The Judgment Creditor may also ask the Court to issue a Final Order in Garnishment so that payments will automatically be deducted from your paycheck or your bank account.

(5) If the Judgment was entered by default, meaning you did not appear in Court and the Judgment was entered in your absence, and less than one (1) year has passed since the default Judgment was entered, you might be able to file a Verified Motion to Set Aside or Vacate Default Judgment. This form is available online and at the Court's office.

(6) When you do come to Court for Proceedings Supplemental, you must bring with you any and all documentation about your income and assets including your paycheck stubs, tax returns, bank statements, statement of benefits for government assistance or retirement, etc. for the last six (6) months.

(7) The Judgment Creditor is entitled to collect the Judgment from any property you own or income you receive except when the property or income is protected from collection by state or federal law. When property or income is protected, it is referred to as "exempt." Please see Notice of Exemption Rights for more information. This form is available online and at the Court's office.
