TAX/ASSESS SYSTEM SOFTWARE DISCUSSION

Auditor Weston spoke regarding an integrated Tax and Assess software program. The Auditor, Treasurer and County Assessor began the discussion in 2006 to talk about state requirements, functionality and capability options. Request for proposal were received in July of 2007 from eight companies. As of December 2007, a unanimous decision had not been reached for all departments. In February 2008, the legislature proposed developing a state-wide system for use by all counties before 2011. At this point, without solid details the purchase of new system is on hold. Department heads are reviewing the current system in an effort to update it until more information is available.

MITS Director Diane Hawkins confirmed the state's purpose is to eliminate redundancy in data between the Auditor and Assessor. The current hardware could not meet the guidelines set by the state and would need an enormous amount of work to become compliant. County Assessor Samantha Steele replied our program does not allow for sketching which would be beneficial to the assessors during trending.

Councilmember's shared their concern for funding the software. They suggested members of the team provide more detailed cost information to the council with a brief description of the companies and a recommendation at the next meeting.

- Councilmember moved to table the request until the next council meeting, second by Councilmember Michael; motion carried.

A public meeting will be held on March 14, 2008 at 10:00 a. m. at Christ United Methodist Church to provide public information on the treatment of juveniles in Tippecanoe County.

PUBLIC COMMENT

Michele Edmonds, taxpayer, shared her concern for the major decisions being made by the commissioners and the council before the juvenile center project has earned public support. She believes costly decisions are being made in the county for the juvenile center without taxpayer approval. She encouraged council members to put a stop to commissioner spending on this project until the commissioners understand that taxpayers are not giving a blank check for the center without a firm and fiscally responsible plan for the center.

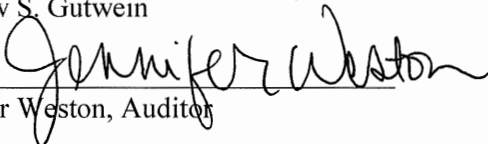

- Councilmember Byers moved to adjourn.
